Dear Vaiṣṇavas,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Koṭi daṇḍavat to Śrīla Jayādvaita Swami.

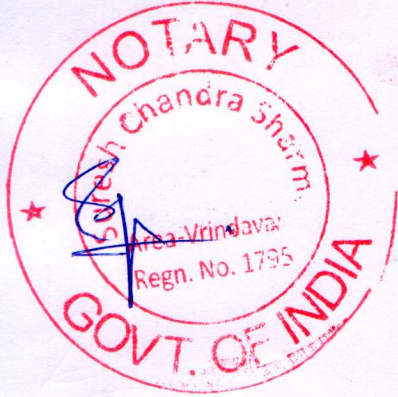

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda.

By the time you read this I may have left my body.

I want to thank you for your kind association. Together we worshipped Kṛṣṇa and tried to serve Śrīla Prabhupāda.

I want to thank my spiritual master for lifting me up to higher levels in devotional service. His mercy and generosity are more than I deserved.

To my disciples, I want to thank you for all that you have done in spiritual life and for all that you have done to support me in my service to the mission of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu. Please continue your devotional service even in my absence, and try seriously to go back to Godhead this lifetime. Please take inspiration from other senior Vaiṣṇavas. Let us give whomever we meet the instructions from and about Kṛṣṇa.

1. Body

Although I feel unworthy, the question about a samādhi will undoubtedly come up, since I have been a sannyāsī and an initiating spiritual master. The matter has been presented to the Vrindavan Executive Board (VEB). The VEB gave permission to identify a plot in the ISKCON Vrindavan Goshala and assigned this responsibility to Adi Keshava Das, who is a VEB secretary. The VEB verbally confirmed to Bhurijana Prabhu and Adi Keshava that a plot is available.

2. Finance

I have no personal savings, properties or assets. I have simply engaged in service in ISKCON and worked exclusively as a volunteer for them, and on behalf of them I have handled funds, in either ISKCON accounts or such and such trusts.

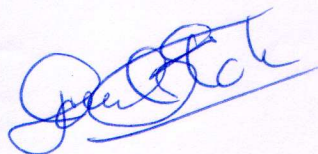

In this will I intend to advise the relevant representatives of ISKCON and other entities to allocate finances to the various projects I have been engaged in on their behalf. I have placed funds in designated ISKCON or ISKCON-affiliated accounts. These funds do not belong to me, but they are under my direction. These funds have been collected through donations given to me for the purpose of preaching Krishna Consciousness.

Below are three sections:

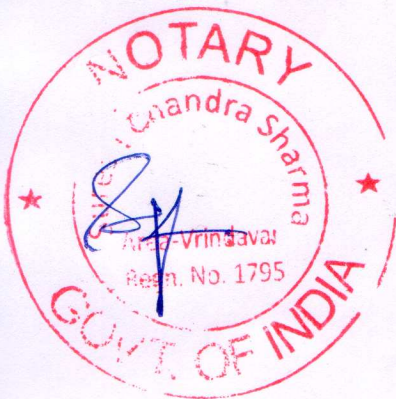

Section 1 – Points of Contact: I mention all the relevant points of contact who have access to the funds which are under my care for the sole purpose of preaching.

Section 2 – Officializing a legal entity: I specify details regarding the legal entity to manage preaching funds raised through my intellectual property (such as my books and audio recordings).

Section 3 – Fund Allocation: I leave instructions which address how I advise these funds to be used in order to continue current preaching efforts. -

- SOUTH AFRICA: Contact Vibhu Caitanya Dāsa (South Africa). Funds held in an account of ISKCON Durban:

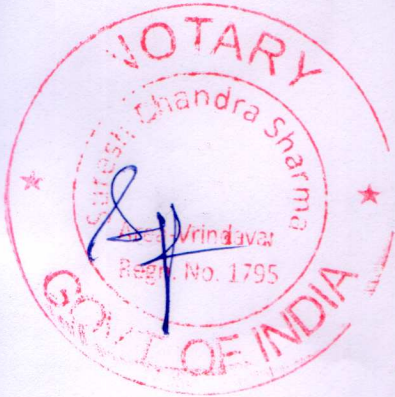

- GERMANY: Contact Dvārakādīśa Dāsa for the KKS Preaching Fund. The fund is held by the Verein für Vedische Kultur.

Section 2: Officializing a legal entity

- I have created a legal entity called the Kadamba Foundation to hold all my literary and musical assets. The trustees I am appointing are: Uddhava, Gopali, and Sanatana.
- The trustees are to ensure that the Kadamba Foundation accomplishes the following three purposes:
 - Secure the copyrights of all my books, titles, music, and other intellectual property of significant legal importance;
 - Completely avoid tax payments in order to maximize charitable endeavors;
 - Enable funds to be transferred to entities of interest. This is broadly defined as entities which are either directly ISKCON or indirectly ISKCON affiliated.
- All funds should be handled through the Kadamba Foundation, as directed below.

Section 3: Funds and allocation

- In the past, funds from Slovakia under the care of Gopali have been
 - generated from the sales of my books and CDs. The model was that all revenue from these sales was used first to reprint more books and CD's. This ensured that the cost of printing books and making CD's would always be self-sustaining. This should continue.
- All profits generated from my books and CD's were used to fund preaching in Africa. This should also continue.
- Now that the Kadamba Foundation has been created, sales, reprinting and profit distribution should be done centrally through the Kadamba Foundation.

Fund Allocation

- Regarding all the funds currently under my guidance. They should be calculated to create a total sum.
- From that total sum, $50,000 should be kept for printing books, under the direction of Rupa Sanatana. The money for printing books should be kept in the Kadamba Foundation.
- A portion of the $50,000 in this book fund will be used for printing a book about the history of New York written by Satyaraja Das. This is the first and most important priority from the book fund. The initial printing of this book should be a maximum of 500 books, after which this book will need to sustain itself through sales.
- After having accounted for the book fund, all remaining funds should be allocated as follows:
 - $100,000 is for ISKCON Brooklyn, New York.
 - The funds for New York are to be exclusively used for the renovation of the public hall adjacent to the main temple building, specifically to make a new roof slab for the public hall. Jayadvaita Swami and Hari Vilasa are requested to ensure that the funds are used for this designated purpose.

- 1,000,000 Rands is for the African preaching fund
 - Vibhu Caitanya will oversee and ensure that this is managed properly. As Vibhu knows, these funds are reserved to support African preaching programs such as WuSA, the Soweto rathayatra, BBT Books for Africa, and new initiatives.
- Once this initial allocation has been done, all future net profits and any further donations from incoming funds should be sent to the Kadamba Foundation.
- Please liaise with the trustees, namely Uddhava, Gopali, and Sanatana. They will ensure that the funds are deposited correctly.
- In my absence, they will ensure that the majority of future funds are allocated to support Vibhu's preaching efforts across South Africa.

African projects which can be funded from this money:

- Acquiring real estate
- Maintaining real estate
- Providing education
- Holding festivals (specifically Soweto rathayatra)
